Water Department

Glades citizens are always supporting good measures, and when the County Health Department, asked that they submit an X-ray test for traces of the deadly tuberculosis, they heeded the call, and like good soldiers, marched up to the testing booth for the examination, in goodly numbers.

The X-ray machine, which was used in the various section of the Glades, handled over 100 exposures a minute, and there were long streams of people going through the examination during the open hours.

The process is a simple nature, but all had to step lively so as not to hamper the work. Individual addressed cards, which were checked and examined by physicians, will later be sent each testee, with the report of the machine picture findings.

For some weeks past many reports of farm and drag line equipment accessories thefts have been reported from the West Coast, The Glades and in Broward and Dade Counties. The D. D. Campbell Co., of Miami, reported to the police a $200 theft of drag line equipment, which was transferred to Palm Beach's sheriff office and later same was turned over to Sheriff Gibb Gross, to work the Glades area.

While in the process of this work, Gross accidentally ran across a clue, which led to the cracking of Sunday night robberies at the Lou Currier, Bill Wigginton, John Tabbit farms, in which batteries, a Ford car radiator, and other items were taken, running well over $250.00 in value.

Gross on a tip, went to the home of the original Miami Silver Dollar Building, on Monday, who had less than a week ago brought his family from Panama to Belle Glade, and brought them home, and to the police station. In the truck was considerable goods, which later proved had been stolen from the Campbell's in Miami. A black rain coat in the truck proved Mrs. Underfoot, the owner, identified it as one belonging to one of their drag line equipment, and this one also identified the garment as his property.

Gross later went back to the Miami post office and took in custody Lola Miles, and her sons, Salom and Ceylon Albion, 15 and 18, all of whom last.

School Carnival A Colorful Event And Big Success

Children Parade In Halloween Costumes And Make The Walkin Ring With Hilarity

It was high jinks night for the Belle Glade school children at Memorial Park, Saturday, where the annual Halloween Carnival was staged, under favorable weather conditions. If kids and adults did not have an enjoyable evening it was their own fault, for there were sufficient attractions presented for the amusement and entertainment.

The parade naturally was the feature of the evening, and if comparisons could be made, the colorful attractions of the evening, greatly surpassed former ones of the type. Most of every character was represented in the "make believe" world, comic, pretty, grotesque and (Continued on page 3)

Boyd and legal representatives were present to view the location of information. Present plans call for a road leading south eight miles from the lake, to give easy access to the farm lands and pumps and for the transportation of crops to market.

State Files Complaints With Sanitary Police On Beauty Violations

Willis, local sanitary policeman, has been advised from Tallahassee and given a list of persons in Belle Glade who are not complying with the State Beautician Department regulation, by operating beauty parlors in connection with their homes, which is not permissible under the law, each must be separate from each other.

Complaint is also made that some "operators", who do not hold licenses, are making house calls for the making of "Tony" haircuts, and charging for same, which is also another regulation violation. Willis is giving all offenders an opportunity to make good, or to comply with the law prior to making a court move.

Freight Rates On Vegetables Stable For Fall Season

Rail And Truck Drivers Are Battling For Increased Rates. First Begins This Week.

Report comes from the local packing houses, that freight rates on Glades produce crops will not take a higher freight rate than they did at the close of the spring season of 1948. However, rail carriers have made application and are hard pressing their claim, to secure an additional higher rate, and if the ICC follows its past practices, they are likely to secure the raises, after the pending hearing is ended.

Southern growers and handlers are fighting hard against such increases, for they cannot see where they will gain higher rates, and they are likely to see the price of their commodities raised, as the price of their commodities is woefully low, and a higher rate would practically put them out of business.

Truckers are also asking for an advanced tariff, and at present are in a controversy over the new regulations, which would hard hit their business. The classification of vegetables (Continued on page 4)

Broward Bulldogs Come From Behind To Score For Tie

Belle Glade's Golden Rams, which were under rated by the pages of the press, in the South Broward Bulldogs, came through with fine showing last night as the two teams played to a tie.

If it had not been for the ten penalties against the Rams chances are the score would have been a different story. The Rams clinched a fifty five yard drive for their six point after intercepting a Broward pass on their own 43 yard line, and on the next play, the Rams scored standing. Williams missed the conversion.

The Bulldogs crossed the line to pay dirt late in the final period with less than four minutes left to play in the ball game. Left halfback, Neville, skirted his own left end and ran the TD. The Bulldogs missed the point as the kick went wide.

The Bulldogs were outplayed in just about every phase of the game as the Rams came through with eighteen first downs with Broward making only ten. There was an even one hundred yards difference in the yardage gained from scrimmage by the two teams with the Rams having 280 and the Bulldogs 180.

Boy Scout Day Is Observed By Lions Club-November 3rd

It was Boy Scout Day at the Lions Club, Wednesday, Nov. 3, when officials and troops of the South Glades District to the number of 30 were guests of the Club, and it proved to be a mightily fine social event.

The speaker of the day was the "Uncle Billy" of the Glades Stream Council staff. When Bill is found there is always something doing, as he showed, when he visited the club, he was on a "Concentration" stunt won by W. H. Cooke.

Nixon briefly outlined the scout's work, the cub, and the scouts, for boys of 15 and upward, of which the Lions are a sponsor, which includes sea or nautical scouting, explorer work and air plane scouting, and supervisory leadership. He claimed that the senior program had no connection with the regular program, but that it was a advancement movement to still train youth in the maturing period.

Whitlock, chairman of the Swimming Pool committee, stated that the club now had a new 1948 Ford Sedan on order, to be presented to some one and Christmas time, and asked full co-operation of his committee, club members and citizens, in the distribution of the same.

The club will again co-operate with the Salvation Army for its Christmas program, as it has in the past.

Secretary Mayo Starts 26th Year On State Job

The State of Florida, this week, saw Secretary of Agriculture, Nathan Mayo, enter upon his twenty sixth year as head of that important state office. He has served under seven governors, and while there have been aspirants for his job appearing on the primary ballot, none were ever able to head Mayo off for retention of his office.

Mayo is as well known in one part of the state as another for he is one official who gets acquainted with and knows his business and is possibly the best known state member of the State Cabinet. Here in the Glades he is personally well known, as under his administration come the Prison farm and the Everglades Experiment Station, where he visits several times a year on official business.

He has been a great friend and promoter for the Glades, for through his office many projects have been given his official commendation and assistance. He is most interested in our overall water and conservation plan, for much of the lands involved are under the control of I-1 board, of which he is a powerful member. Glades people, along with the Herald, send their congratulations to Secretary Mayo, and hope that he will continue serving them in the future.

Mayo is not only the head of the Agricultural Department, but is a large farm operator at his home at Summerfield, out of Ocala, where he had a large tract of land, and has large citrus groves. He developed one early orange which is named the Summerfield, said to be superior to all other early varieties.

Thurmond Is Third, With 26 Seeing Thru Wallace's Glasses

The influence of "Big Business" and our insipid tourist were reflected in the Tuesday voting in the States Beach County. Twenty five of the 48 County precincts were carried by Dewey, while Ralph E. Turner carried only three precincts against Dwight Rogers.

Shawano Hillsboro Plantation is the only precinct in the County that didn't cast at least one Republican vote.

Dewey's total was 10,800 against 9301 for Truman, while Thurmond garnered 3370, with Wallace having 625; this is in the County.

In the seven Glades precincts Truman received more than 5000 votes, Thurmond 1123; Dewey got 597; Thurmond 328 and Wallace 28. Rogers received 1057 while Kallenborn 1057, while in the Glades, while in the County Kallenborn received 6534 to Rogers' 9468.

In the State, the Republicans won in ten counties and there were four counties where a change in just a few votes would have put them in the majority.

Lake, Orange and Putnam Counties are the only interior counties going Republican; the other seven were coastal counties. Of the four where the difference was just a few votes, all were coastal counties.

Dade County, which polled about 25 per cent of the vote, also cast about the same percentage of its state's Republican vote.

The vote indicates that Florida's votes are in a flux condition and some attention must be paid the State nationally by any party.

The vote nationally is definite notice to the world—Mr. Joe Stalin's vote especially—that the Kansas citizen in the White House is not for the next four years, and that the people who will help place in a vote where it will do the most good to Joe, it becomes necessary, are backing him.

TELL THE STORY
 E. E. Hargrave, of the Jewel Food Stores, Chicago, recently pointed out that a great deal of work remains to be done in educating the public as to the economic facts of life—particularly as they apply to the profits earned by retailers and other business.

According to various public opinion polls, he said, two-thirds of the people think business profits average more than 20 per cent, and some believe they run as high as 80 per cent. Yet overall profits run only about 5 per cent of sales and in some important lines, such as food chains, are substantially less than half as much.

A considerable proportion of the people are of the opinion that the managers and owners of typical American businesses get 75 cents out of each dollar available for wages and salaries, while workers get only 25 cents. The truth is that the workers get 87 cents and the owners and managers but 13 cents.

Finally, some of the polls indicate that 19 per cent of the people believe they would bet a better deal if the government managed business, and 14 per cent more think they would do about as well. In the light of the experience in the Soviet Union, where government ownership and control of everything have produced one of the lowest standards of living in the world, that is an amazing opinion indeed.

The real point of this is that we must never slow the effort to bring the true story of free enterprise to the attention of all the people. It is a story which needs no exaggeration—plain facts, plus interpretations that anyone can understand, prove our system's enormous superiority.

 We were happy to have one of our patrons, Mrs. Fannie Potter in attendance at our assembly program on last Friday, October 29. Mrs. Potter gave an interesting talk of encouragement to both pupils and teachers. It is hoped that more parents and interested citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity to be with us during our assembly period each Friday afternoon at 12:30.

The Choral Club, under the direction of Miss C. L. Palms and Mrs. A. M. James, presented a very unique program of Negro Spirituals. Miss Palms also entertained us with a piano solo. Those who missed this program missed one that was very enjoyable and inspirational.

Our Principal, Mr. McCurdy, was away on last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in order to be in attendance at the State Supervisors and Principals Conference held at the Florida A. & M. College. Mr. McCurdy stated that the meeting was opened with an address by State Superintendent-elect, Tom Bailey, who challenged the supervisors and principals present to make education in Florida more meaningful to the people of Florida by the use and conservation of resources that are abundant in the state and in each community.

One of the leading colored citizens and business men of Belle Glade, is W. C. Taylor, proprietor of the Taylor Funeral Home, 1614-1616, Belle Glade, where he has always shown his interest in his race and has been a promoter of many good projects, and has been a leading church, civic club and fraternal member.

However, his hobby, has been welfare promotion of the youth, and marriage.

 "Husbands, Wives, and Marriage"

Maybe you read that survey published recently in a national magazine, entitled "Husbands, Wives, and Marriage". It showed that among happily married couples, those who criticized themselves outnumbered those who criticized the other partner. Among unhappily married couples, it was just the opposite—each one tended to criticize the other. "That's the way it is in our town, as I guess it is in yours. Criticism, whether it's of a wife's taste for hair, or a husband's taste for pipe tobacco and an evening glass of beer or ale, is a sure start towards unhappiness. As for what made happy marriages, unconsciously within the home was listed most important of all. He was not personally satisfied to just pick up local education, but wanted all that was obtainable, so sought the higher courses of Scouting, for which he now holds certificates named by Scoutmaster's Training, Commission Service, General Scouting, Camping, Activities, Leadership Training, Organization and Extension, which takes in the entire units of instruction.

At a recent meeting of the Gulf Stream Council, Mr. Taylor, was signally honored, when he was presented with the high honor of all and awarded as a Silver Beaver, the second colored man in Palm Beach to be awarded such an honor and its attendant badge.  tion, had lapped over the center traffic line, and the cars met head on in collision.

The Kruse car was badly damaged, and its same one which got banged up in the recent post office wreck some weeks ago. The Prevatt taxi was also damaged.

Chief of Police Charles Goodlett, and other officers, early arrived on the scene of the accident, and took charge until Corp. William Kaufman, of the State Patrol arrived to handle matters, the scene being outside the Belle Glade City limits, and in the patrolmen's territory.

Officers saw that the women were taken to the Belle Glade hospital, to determine the extent of their injuries and for hospitalization. Mrs. Prevatt's Kruse was found to have sustained lacerations about the head and face, one rather severe cut in the eye region; while Mrs. Albert Kruse had similar injuries of a lesser nature. The two small children in the rear seat of the Kruse car were uninjured.

Baptist Home Coming At South Bay 5 Success

The annual Home Coming services were conducted at the South Bay Church on Sunday, October 31, with an excellent crowd of home folks and goodly sprinklings of former members now living in other parts of the south.

The Rev. Harry Wilson, pastor of the local church in 1931, now serving the Pine Ridge Church at Waynesboro, Mississippi, was the speaker at both morning and evening services. Pastor Wilson also conducted the Baptist Church hour over WSN at 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

He centered his morning address around the building of the Ark of the Covenant, explaining the significance of the various parts to the Ark and its contents, using a small gold replica of the Ark of the Covenant which his Vacation Bible School had built during their summer session.

A sumptuous basket dinner was served on the church grounds during the noon intermission. The Rev. B. A. Oswald, Pastor, conducted a short afternoon service of song and testimony. Donald Weeks of Belle Glade led the singing.

An interesting feature of the afternoon service was a short history of the South Bay Church which was first started in May 1928, under the supervision of Rev. W. C. Taylor, with 22 charter members although the church itself was not started until 1929, when a plot of ground for the church site was donated by the late Mr. C. W. Grogan.

M. D. Hardy, out of town guest and long time member, presented the history.

South Bay P. T. A. Has Very Busy Planning Session

The South Bay Parent Teachers Association met on Monday evening at the school auditorium. Mrs. E. W. McLeod presiding.

The treasurer, Mead Willis, reported cash on hand of $728.75, the greater portion of which was realized from the returns on the recent Carnival.

The cafeteria report was presented by R. G. Fisher, who stated that some equipment was badly needed, particularly a large refrigerator for preservation of food and milk.

Mrs. McLeod called attention to the fact that representatives from the South Bay and Lake Harbor Parent Associations were on the hospitality committee to set up at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 10, at the Methodist Church in West Palm Beach at a reception during the State Convention. She also announced that two rooms had been made available for 4 delegates from this association while attending the convention.

Mrs. Mary Horton's seventh grade home room was awarded the attendance prize.

It was decided to install a double decker set of cuts in the rest room for use of pupils who become ill in school and were unable to return home until the afternoon school bus.

A fund of $25 was set aside to repair the phonograph and buy albums of records suitable for use in Primary, Elementary and Junior High Classes.

R. G. Fisher, M. J. Hardy and E. W. Willis were appointed a committee to purchase a water cooler to be installed in the front of the school building.

A talk by Mrs. G. J. Barstow was the chief feature of the program. The topic was in relation to the National Education Week in which she pointed out that the real purpose of the Parent Teacher Association work, which is to work toward more complete education and social contacts with school faculties is being greatly hampered by the commercializing of its activities into a money making institution for the purpose of buying school equipment which should be furnished by the County Board of Education maintaining the schools.

She made a plea for the Parent Teacher Association to return to the purpose for which it was founded and bend their energies into securing more adult education in the community. She pointed out that the school buildings which represent an enormous expenditure of tax money were idle during all evenings and vacation periods and should be put to some productive use in the recreation and education of the community by instituting night and vacation classes in citizenship, good government, child psychology, typing and bookkeeping, handicraft and hobbies.

Mrs. McLeod announced that the County Council would be the guests of the South Bay Association in February.

The hospitality committee served refreshments consisting of chicken sandwiches, angel food cake and coffee to approximately 40 members who were in attendance.
